Celebrant The Lord be with you.

People And also with you.

Celebrant Let us pray.

The Collect of the Day

O God, the protector of all who trust in you, without whom nothing is strong, nothing is holy: Increase and multiply upon us your mercy; that, with you as our ruler and guide, we may so pass through things temporal, that we lose not the things eternal; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever.
Amen.

(The People Sit)

Psalm 145: 10-19

Ann Glaser

The Cantor will chant the verses. The People will then chant the Antiphon:

Great is the Lord and greatly to be praised.

The Lessons

The First Lesson: 2 Kings 4:42-44

A man came from Baal-shalishah, bringing food from the first fruits to the man of God: twenty loaves of barley and fresh ears of grain in his sack. Elisha said, "Give it to the people and let them eat." But his servant said, "How can I set this before a hundred people?" So he repeated, "Give it to the people and let them eat, for thus says the LORD, 'They shall eat and have some left.'" He set it before them, they ate, and had some left, according to the word of the LORD.

At the conclusion of The Lesson:

Lector The Word of the Lord.

People Thanks be to God.

The Second Lesson: Ephesians 3: 14-21

I bow my knees before the Father, from whom every family in heaven and on earth takes its name. I pray that, according to the riches of his glory, he may grant that you may be strengthened in your inner being with power through his Spirit, and that Christ may dwell in your hearts through faith, as you are being rooted and grounded in love. I pray that you may have the power to comprehend, with all the saints, what is the breadth and length and height and depth, and to know the love of Christ that surpasses knowledge, so that you may be filled with all the fullness of God.

Now to him who by the power at work within us is able to accomplish abundantly far more than all we can ask or imagine, to him be glory in the church and in Christ Jesus to all generations, forever and ever. Amen.

At the conclusion of The Lesson:

Lector The Word of the Lord.

People Thanks be to God.

(The People Stand)

Gospel Hymn 178 (vv. 1-2 before; vv. 3-4 after)

Celebrant The Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to John.

People Glory to you, Lord Christ.

The Gospel: John 6:1-21

Jesus went to the other side of the Sea of Galilee, also called the Sea of Tiberias. A large crowd kept following him, because they saw the signs that he was doing for the sick. Jesus went up the mountain and sat down there with his disciples. Now the Passover, the festival of the Jews, was near. When he looked up and saw a large crowd coming toward him, Jesus said to Philip, "Where are we to buy bread for these people to eat?" He said this to test him, for he himself knew what he was going to do. Philip answered him, "Six months' wages would not buy enough bread for each of them to get a little." One of his disciples, Andrew, Simon Peter's brother, said to him, "There is a boy here who has five barley loaves and two fish. But what are they among so many people?" Jesus said, "Make the people sit down." Now there was a great deal of grass in the place; so they sat down, about five thousand in all. Then Jesus took the loaves, and when he had given thanks, he distributed them to those who were seated; so also the fish, as much as they wanted. When they were satisfied, he told his disciples, "Gather up the fragments left over, so that nothing may be lost." So they gathered them up, and from the fragments of the five barley loaves, left by those who had eaten, they filled twelve baskets. When the people saw the sign that he had done, they began to say, "This is indeed the prophet who is to come into the world." When Jesus realized that they were about to come and take him by force to make him king, he withdrew again to the mountain by himself. When evening came, his disciples went down to the sea, got into a boat, and started across the sea to Capernaum. It was now dark, and Jesus had not yet come to them. The sea became rough because a strong wind was blowing. When they had rowed about three or four miles, they saw Jesus walking on the sea and coming near the boat, and they were terrified. But he said to them, "It is I; do not be afraid." Then they wanted to take him into the boat, and immediately the boat reached the land toward which they were going.

At the conclusion of The Gospel:

Celebrant The Gospel of the Lord.
People Praise to you Lord Christ.

Ways to Help

The following church programs need your support. If you can give your time to any of them, please call their representative:

Prayer Chain: Helen Allinder 927-1935

St. Paul's Helpers (Drivers): Betty Pierce 927-8573

Altar Guild: Barbara Marks 927-5513

Ushers: Michelle Costa 927-3239

Did you know?

Our 10:30 Sunday morning services are now taped and available on our Web-site. What a gift for those who cannot attend church on Sundays! I watched three services when I was in Chicago (so I shared the Peace with you long distance...) and I thoroughly enjoyed Donna and Don's sermons.

To gain access to our Web-site, go to www.stpaulscambria.org and then go to the menu bar on the left side of the screen. Click on the forth tab down, "Digital Presentation of our Sunday Holy Eucharist Celebration," select the Sunday service you are interested in viewing and voila!

I am very grateful to Leonard Kohout for this and countless other technical innovations he has bought us. B+

You're Invited...

...to host Coffee Hour on a bi-monthly basis. Please sign up in the Parish Hall if you think you may be able to help.

...to join one of our recovery or support programs: Grief Group, Al-Anon, Women's A.A., and Adult Children of Alcoholics. For meeting times/days, please consult the weekly bulletin calendar or call the office.

...to help keep our grounds looking beautiful through our Gardening Team.

...to do your part to relieve hunger in Cambria. Please donate to the food program whenever possible. Canned and dry goods, and checks to St. Paul's (memo line: food) are collected each Sunday.
